LONDON,

Printed for Thomas Baker, at the Bible and Key in Ludgate-Street.

To the READER.

THIS Method of Accompting is brought under Four Heads, viz.

I. A Survey, or Rental of the Eſtate on Pages 4. and 5. where may be obſerv'd that the Margin on the Left Hand mentions the Tenants, or Poſſeſſors of the ſeveral Parts of the Eſtate. The Body of the Page againſt each Tenant's Name, declares what Part each Tenant holds, at what Rent, when due, whether on Leaſe or otherwiſe; and the Money-Column ſhews in Figures the Yearly Sum charged on each Tenant.

II. An Accompt, on the Left Hand Pages, of Receipts throughout the whole Year; of whom, for what Part of the Eſtate or otherwiſe, what Quarterly, Half-yearly, or Yearly Rent, and whether in part or in full.

III. An Accompt, on the Right-Hand Pages, of Payments during the whole Year, placed to the Months and Days in which they were made; and the Sum Total of each Monthly Payments. And

IV. A Collection of all the Receipts under the Receipt Side, and of all the Payments under the Payment Side, whereby may be ſeen the Total of Receipts and Payments, and how much the Former exceeds the Latter, or how much the Gentleman's Eſtate Produces Yearly more than he Expends.
